I really enjoyed the song and I thought that it was very nice to open with the drums and percussion. The music reminded me of something that possibly James Brown would do or Bruno Mars. I was also reminded of music from the 80s or even possibly the seventies as I think this music would have been very popular around that time. This is definitely a band that I would like to see live as I believe that they would put on a really terrific show.

I liked the multitude of instruments that I heard in the intro. The tempo of the song is perfect, not too slow, not too fast. The main vocalist sounds like he could be part of a bigger group/band. He did a great job and the backing vocals really do a great job aiding the main verse. I think his effortless singing really carries this song! I loved it!

Wow, this song has a huge amount of soul behind it. It sounds as if its ripped right out of the 70's. The vocals are wonderful an the instrumentals are equally wonderful as well, it's just one wonderful song all together. Reminds me a lot of the artist Junior.

The song is perfect, the singers voice is perfect, he delivers the lyrics with his whole soul. The music blends seamlessly with the song, they just don't make songs like this anymore, this can interest both young and old generations.
